

EDITORS' NOTE

Welcome to the fifth issue of the Arizona Working Papers in Second Language Acquisition and Teaching. We would like to take this opportunity to extend our appreciation to a number of people who made this publication possible. Special thanks go to Dr. Cynthia White, our faculty mentor, for the time and effort she so generously contributed to the Working Papers. We also thank Lawrence Berlin for help with formatting and Adam Dudsic for his technical assistance. Funds from the Graduate College provided the financial support to make this project possible. Finally we want to acknowledge all the SLAT students who directly and indirectly contributed to this volume.

We would like to remind our readers that the papers in this volume are working papers and that, as such, any reference to them should make mention of their preliminary nature. In addition, reproduction of any paper should only be made with the consent of the author.

Inquiries concerning submissions, subscriptions or exchanges should be addressed to:
