

EDITORS' NOTE

Welcome to the sixth edition of the Arizona Working Papers in Second Language Acquisition & Teaching. This project is made possible by the financial assistance of the Graduate College of the University of Arizona. We would like to thank Dr. Ofelia Zepeda, our faculty advisor, for giving her support in this effort. In addition, we extend our appreciation to the SLAT students and faculty who participated in the process of preparing this edition. We especially acknowledge the many excellent papers that were submitted; the selection process was indeed a difficult one. We hope our readers will be as pleased with the results as we are.

We remind our readers, however, that the papers in this edition are classified as "working papers," and as such, any reference to them should make mention of their preliminary nature. In addition, reproduction of any paper or portion thereof should only be made with adequate citation and with the consent of the author.

Inquiries regarding submissions, subscriptions, or exchanges should be addressed to:
