

Future Workshop

ALEXANDER THE GREAT AND EGYPT: HISTORY, ART, AND TRADITION

University of Wroclaw, Poland
November 18-19, 2011

This workshop is being organized by Krzysztof Nawotka (University of Wroclaw, Poland), Volker Grieb (Helmut Schmidt University Hamburg, Germany) with Agnieszka Wojciechowska (University of Wroclaw, Poland) as the organizing committee secretary. The aim of the workshop is to examine both the Macedonian conquest of Egypt, its consequences and its reflection in literature and art. An area of particular importance is attitudes of the local population to Alexander.

The organizing committee looks forward in particular to contributions making use of both classical and Egyptian sources and to those uniting multidisciplinary approach to the sources material and research questions. The committee invites papers suitable for delivery in 20-30 minutes. Please send abstracts of 300 words or less as an attachment to Agnieszka Wojciechowska (agnieszka.w4@gmail.com) by 30 May, 2011.

The publication of a volume containing a selection of revised conference papers is being planned.

Further details on the Workshop will be announced in future issues of JAEL.
